Western Australia		Traveling resource sector workers will need to complete an arrival form and confirm "Essential Traveller" status by selecting "Specialist skills". CME report - but not officially announced. Western Australia will stop all Fly-In Fly-Out (FIFO) from NSW from Monday. The Chamber of Minerals and Energy of Western Australia's (CME) said the decision had been made by the WA resources sector in the interests of community safety. CME Chief Executive said the move had the support of the WA resources sector. "The sector is very grateful for the support given to us by the WA Government, and we want to do all we can to stop the spread of COVID-19 across our sites and the wider community," he said. "We have been in discussion throughout the day with our members across all commodities and decided this was the best course of proactive action to take." WA's biggest source of FIFO workers come from Queensland.	https://www.wa.gov.au/government/document-collections/covid-19-coronavirus-state-of-emergency-declarations	https://www.wa.gov.au/sites/default/files/2020-03/DPC00156_COVID19_Special%20Exemption%20Form.pdf https://www.wa.gov.au/sites/default/files/2020-03/DPC00156_COVID-19_A4-Biosecurity%20Areas_270320_0.pdf
Queensland		Those living outside of Queensland who provide critical services to Queensland, may be exempt to self-quarantine. If you are providing these critical services and need to enter Queensland, you can apply for an entry pass. From midnight, Saturday 4 April 2020, Queensland will close its borders to all non-critical resource sector fly-in, fly-out (FIFO) workers	https://www.qld.gov.au/about/newsroom/queensland-border-restrictions https://www.business.qld.gov.au/industries/mining-energy-water/resources/covid-19/restrictions-fifo-travel	https://www.qld.gov.au/border-pass
South Australia		The direction provides exemptions to those classified as an 'essential traveller'. Travellers entering the state will be required to determine if they meet these requirements. A member of the public who believes they are an 'essential traveller', will be asked to justify their status if they are spoken to by police at a checking point or any other place in the State	https://www.police.sa.gov.au/sa-police-news-assets/front-page-news/direction-released-for-travel-into-south-australia#.XnxrimgzaUl	https://www.police.sa.gov.au/__data/assets/pdf_file/0004/879106/Cross-Border-Travel-Direction-2020.pdf
Northern Territory		Interstate arrivals - Arrivals in the NT from interstate from 11:59pm 1 April will be escorted to hotels and monitored for 14 days of quarantine. If you arrive after 3 April, you will need to pay for quarantine costs.	https://coronavirus.nt.gov.au/community-advice/border-controls/exemption-categories-for-essential-travellers	https://coronavirus.nt.gov.au/__data/assets/pdf_file/0009/806931/exemption-application.pdf
Tasmania		If you meet the criteria for Essential Travellers status you may be exempted from the 14 day quarantine requirement but you must still comply with the conditions described in Quarantine conditions for Essential Travellers. You may apply to be considered an Essential Traveller based on compassionate or medical grounds, if your work is identified as essential, or for other reasons considered on individual merit by the Secretary of Department of Primary Industries, Parks, Water and Environment.	https://www.coronavirus.tas.gov.au/travellers-and-visitors/coming-to-tasmania https://dpipwe.tas.gov.au/biosecurity-tasmania/biosecurity/biosecurity-forms/covid-19-important-information-for-travellers	https://dpipwe.tas.gov.au/Documents/Tasmanian%20Arrivals%20Form.pdf
